

Find modelling auditions in the UK with help from Audition Now

You're working hard to become a professional model. You look good and feel great. No-one can hold a candle to you in a swimsuit and it's only a matter of time before you're gracing billboards and magazine covers.

But the more time that passes and the less opportunity you are given to prove yourself can knock your confidence all the way down the catwalk. Most of the problem stems from not knowing what auditions to attend or, most importantly, where and when they are held. Modelling is as much about being spotted in the right place by the right people at the right time. But how do you do that?

Audition Now can help. When you register for our text alert service - you must be 18 years old or over - we will send you no more than three texts per week, each costing Â£1.50 with information about modelling auditions in the UK. Our team will scour the nation looking for modelling casting calls and auditions and will send the information straight to your phone.

Remember, there is a much higher chance of being spotted by a talent scout if you turn up to a modelling audition. You're not going to get spotted sitting at home, waiting for the call to come to you.
